

LIV Owner David Grutman's Wedding Brought a Whole Load of Random Celebrities to Wynwood Walls

BY KYLE MUNZENRIEDER

MONDAY, APRIL 25, 2016 AT 1:54 P.M.

Screenshot via Instagram

LIV co-owner David Grutman is the reigning king of Miami Beach nightlife, but the biggest party he has thrown this year was in Wynwood. The 35-year-old nightlife impresario married his Brazilian-model girlfriend Isabela Rangel in front of hundreds of guests at the Wynwood Walls this past Saturday night.

Holding the key to one of the world's most famed nightclubs often means mingling with VIPs, and the party was certainly full of them. The guest list ran the gamut of fame, from the #WorldsMostTalkedAboutCouple to various Real Housewives.

Kanye West and Kim Kardashian stole the show. When a rapper name-drops you in a single, like West did with Grutman in "On Sight," it's only appropriate to invite him to your wedding. Here's the duo posing with Scottie Pippen and his Real Housewives wife Larsa.